

2017 Nebraska Youth Beef Leadership Symposium

The Kentucky Beef Council is pleased to announce an educational opportunity for (5) Kentucky high school students. This program is a joint venture with the University of Nebraska-Lincoln and their Youth Beef Leadership Symposium. The dates for this program are November 16-19, 2017 and will be held at the University of Nebraska - Lincoln campus.

We are now accepting applications for this program. Students must be high school juniors or seniors. They should have a desire for continuing their education and a strong interest to learn more about the beef cattle industry.

Registration fee, air transportation, and lodging costs will be funded through the Kentucky Beef Council. Adult chaperone(s) will be traveling with the students.

Applications must be postmarked by October 4, 2017. Finalists will be notified to participate in a personal interview. Interviews will take place at the Kentucky Cattlemen's Association office in Lexington.

If scheduling allows participants may visit a feedlot, packing plant, and/or feed mill in Nebraska ahead of the conference.

Applications can be found on our website at www.kycattle.org under the NYBLS tab. If you have questions please contact the Kentucky Cattlemen's Association at 859-278-0899 or nellis@kycattle.org.
