

*June 8-9
Lexington &
Louisville*

Powered by:

Friday, June 8

- 9:00am Check-in and load the bus at The YARDS Classroom –
Located inside the Bluegrass Stockyards Regional Marketplace
- 10:30am – 4:00pm Discover how local beef is produced, processed, and sold to restaurants in Louisville, Kentucky's hub for local food.
- 4:00pm – 6:00pm Discover what happens to beef once it leaves the US and how beef is served internationally.
- 7:00pm Friday night fun at Main Event - Louisville

Saturday, June 9

- 9:00am Check out of hotel
- 10:00am – 12:00pm Discover why Kentucky cattle go west and how beef is processed sold to grocery stores across the US.
- 12:00pm – 1:30pm Wrap up and lunch inside The YARDS Classroom.

Transportation and meals will be provided for the participants throughout the camp. Participants will be staying at the Holiday Inn Express (1520 Alliant Ave, Louisville, KY 40299). A chaperone will be on location.

Deadline to register is March 28

Questions? Contact Nikki Whitaker at 859-278-0899 or nwhitaker@kycattle.org