Working For You

Lobbying

KCA serves as the voice for all Kentucky cattlemen in front of Congress, the state legislature and government agencies. KCA works proactively with our members on all policy issues affecting cattle producers and the beef industry including: international trade, tax & credit issues, food safety, animal health, property rights, environment, federal lands issues, drought relief, marketing, nutrition, and much more. Your KCA membership furthers our opportunities to address these issues and to work with our agriculture partners to respond to attacks from groups like the Humane Society of the United States (HSUS), PETA and others whose goal is the abolition of animal agriculture.

Cow Country News is Informing dedicated to communicating cattle and beef industry news, legislative and membership updates, and current events to KCA membership and others interested in the Kentucky cattle industry. Cow Country News is published monthly and is free to members. The KCA website provides plenty of information on a daily basis. Visit www.kycattle.org for the most up-to-date news and facts about issues affecting the cattle industry. KCA also keeps Facebook users aware of current activities and events with the added benefit of using photos and videos. If you want to stay informed of news affecting Kentucky cattle producers, join today!

Promoting

As the qualified state beef council, KCA supports the Kentucky Beef Council and its programs which focus on consumers, industry partners, and health professionals. The beef checkoff utilizes proactive public relations and advertising to educate consumers on a variety of beef topics from pasture to plate. The Kentucky Beef Council proudly maintains a reputation as a source of reliable science based information for all beef producers. Programs such as the Masters of Beef Advocacy and Beef Quality Assurance programs are in place to enhance the quality and image of beef through producer education.

KENTUCKY CATTLEMEN'S ASSOCIATION

Coming Together
for Kentucky's
Beef Industry

A Voice to Empower Kentucky's Beef Producers

Our mission is to Provide a strong, proactive voice for all of Kentucky's Beef Farm Families, serve as a resource for information and education for producers, consumers and the industry and be a catalyst for enhancing producer profitability.

Who we are >>>

As the largest cattle producing state east of the Mississippi River, Kentucky is home to over 1.1 million beef cows and ranks 5th nationally in total number of farms. The Kentucky Cattlemen's Association, a grass-roots organization with 93 chapters in 120 counties, works to protect, advance and be a strong voice for the state's 40,000 + cattle producers.

The Kentucky Cattlemen's Association is the catalyst for the state's multi-billion dollar beef industry. This non-profit organization serves as both the trade association, which is member driven, and as the qualified state beef council.

The Kentucky Cattlemen's Association is a membership driven trade association, gaining revenue from membership, the KCA Catering Booth and the monthly publication, Cow Country News.

We are with you every step of the way >>>

KCA is a strong supporter of the Kentucky Beef Network and the Kentucky Beef Council. KCA also works directly with the Kentucky Cattlemen's Foundation to promote the profitability of the cattle industry in Kentucky through educational and philanthropic endeavors.
